++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Often rather cloudy, with possible overnight frost.

Today:
A chilly start to Saturday with a likelihood of frost from the previous night. However, the day will be largely dry with some bright spells, but also large amounts of cloud at times. Maximum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Tonight:
Clouds will slowly dissolve during the evening, allowing for clear skies to break through in some areas. Feeling cold tonight with a risk of further frost. Minimum temperature 0 deg C (32 deg F).

Sunday:
A cold start with frost where skies are clear. Fine and dry conditions will continue on Sunday with the best of any bright spells most likely in the morning. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Mostly dry with some bright spells on Monday. Cloudy on Tuesday with some patchy rain possible. Windy on Wednesday with outbreaks of rain.
